INTRODUCTION

The New Era of Hospitality for a landmark building and member of Design Hotels in the heart of Mykonos town

This landmark hotel, just steps away from the iconic Myconian windmills in Chora surrounded by 11000 sq.m of gardens, the revitalised Mykonos Theoxenia provides for a green oasis on the cosmopolitan island, bringing back the carefree yet stylish Greek summer. The historical building, protected by the Greek Ministry of Culture, is made of Delian stone, and has been aesthetically renovated with luminous interiors, strong linear rhythms and lush exterior spaces. Resonating with its natural landscape and striking views of the sea, positioned opposite mystica Delos Island, it features 45 exquisitely elegant rooms and suites with bespoke furniture and 4 signature suites with private pools and verandas. The multitude of terraces to gaze at the sunset and the interwoven garden paths create a protected and welcoming hideaway at the edge of town capturing the essence of Greek lifestyle - we call it Greeknessence.
